ACTION! Updates:

- The Pop Up Markets are running from June 4th – July 15th and have been very successful so far. The first market at Lorne Towers had over 60 people!
- The Brantford Brant Community Food Charter is still underway. Community feedback sessions are being held throughout the summer for additional community input. The goal is to have the Food Charter complete by September 2018.
- The Food Education committee is actively working to promote the Feed Brant website and community resources. A Feed Brant Instagram and Twitter page is being launched.
- Housing providers from various sectors had a second community meeting in June to share and reflect on housing challenges. City of Brantford Planning Department provided an overview and update to the group.
